

Attractions

The Belfast Visitor Pass offers you so many discounts and special offers. Simply present your Visitor Pass to save money.

Your pass is valid once you start using it on public transport and don't forget you will need your journey receipt to get your discounts and special offers. If you don't plan to use public transport you can pick up a receipt from Visit Belfast Welcome Centre or at the Airport Visitor Information desks.

For further tourist information call or go to the Visit Belfast Welcome Centre: 028 9024 6609, and for travel related queries visit the Translink desk in the Visit Belfast Welcome Centre or contact Translink on 028 9066 6630.

Some of the city's sights and attractions are in the city centre but many are easier accessed by bus or train. The Belfast Visitor Pass gives you unlimited travel* so we have highlighted the offers which can be easily accessed by Translink services.

*Unlimited travel is within the Belfast Visitor Pass Zone

Terms & Conditions

- Translink Bus & Rail Travel
- This pass is valid for use on scheduled Metro, NlRailways, Ulsterbus and Glider services operating within the Translink Belfast Visitor Pass Zone, Day Tours, Cross Border, Airport Express 300 and Special Services are excluded.
 - The Belfast Visitor Pass only becomes active for travel when it is first used on a bus or train. The pass is then valid for the period of consecutive day(s) travel purchased e.g. 1, 2 or 3 consecutive days from the date of first use.
 - The Child Belfast Visitor Pass is valid for use by children between the ages of 5 years and 16 years. 16 year olds are permitted to travel on a child card up to 30th June during the school year in which they turn 16 years of age.
 - The Belfast Visitor Pass can be loaded with additional travel covering the Belfast Visitor Pass Zone for 1 Day. Where a Belfast Visitor Pass has some existing validity, topping up with additional travel extends the current validity date. Any unused travel remaining in the intervening period between top-up and next use will not be eligible for refund.
 - Top-ups of daily travel are available at any PayPoint Agent; Translink bus and rail stations; with the driver or conductor on board Ulsterbus and NlRailways services; at Smartlink Agents within Greater Belfast; at the Metro Kiosk, Donegal Square West Belfast; and at the Visit Belfast Welcome Centre, 9 Donegal Square North, Belfast International Airport and George Best Belfast City Airport Tourist Information Centres. Top-ups cannot be made on board Metro Services. You cannot buy a Belfast Visitor Pass on board a Translink service.
 - A Belfast Visitor Pass must be validated on the bus or train for every leg of the journey made. If a valid working Belfast Visitor Pass is not presented to the ticket machine the customer will be required to pay full fare.
 - Passes remain the property of Translink. If lost passes are found they should be returned to: Translink Smartpass Office, Translink, 3 Milewater Road, Belfast, BT3 9BG.
 - Passes must be retained by the passenger until the journey is complete and must be presented if requested by authorised Translink personnel.
 - Once the validity of a pass has expired it cannot be used for travel until topped-up. Expired passes presented for travel will not be accepted and the appropriate full fare will be charged.
- Attractions
- Pass holders are required to present their Belfast Visitor Pass to avail of special offers with the partner company.
 - Special Offers are subject to the Belfast Visitor Pass being valid. Partner companies may require pass holders to also present the corresponding Translink Ticket, which confirms the expiry date of the card - or a specific Belfast Visitor Pass receipt which will be provided for you when you purchase or collect a pass from the Visit Belfast Welcome Centre and Airport Tourist Information Centres.
 - The Belfast Visitor Pass is non-refundable. There are no refunds or replacements for lost or stolen cards.
 - All partner companies listed will provide special offers where appropriate to Belfast Visitor Pass holders. Visit Belfast shall not be responsible or liable for any loss, damage, expense or inconvenience, if any visitor attraction refuses to accept a special offer or discount.
 - Visit Belfast has taken all reasonable care to ensure that discounts and special offers with properly run and reputable facilities of good standing are offered with the Belfast Visitor Pass. However, they will not be liable for any deficiencies in service, quality of merchandise or health and safety pertaining to any particular facility. All complaints or claims must be made directly to the facility concerned.
 - All Belfast Visitor Pass holders enter a facility voluntarily and at their own risk. Visit Belfast have ensured the accuracy of the information on the attractions and exclusive offers. However, conditions at these sites may be subject to change.
 - Opening times will fluctuate from time to time and users of Belfast Visitor Pass information are recommended to check with the venue concerned prior to visiting.
 - When you make a purchase and use the Belfast Visitor Pass, you are accepting the above terms and conditions.
 - The Belfast Visitor Pass offers cannot be used in conjunction with any other current promotional offers.
 - Most offers and discounts are applicable per Belfast Visitor Pass holders only. This may vary for cafés and restaurants, please check in advance with establishments.
- All information correct at the time of going to print. Visit Belfast cannot guarantee the accuracy of the information in this document and supporting material and accept no responsibility for any error or misrepresentation. All liability, disappointment, negligence or other damage caused by reliance on this guide is hereby excluded.

Using your Belfast Visitor Pass on the Bus

- Hold your Belfast Visitor Pass to the target on the ticket machine reader with the front of the card facing upwards.
- When the card reads successfully, the machine will beep once and the green light will light up.
- The machine will issue you with a paper ticket showing the details of your journey. The ticket must be retained for inspection.
- If the red light appears, remove your Belfast Visitor Pass, then hold it to the target and try again.

Using your Belfast Visitor Pass on Glider

Before you board at the halt tap your Belfast Visitor Pass at a validator.

Using your Belfast Visitor Pass on the Train and at Train Stations

- On Trains -
- Hand your Belfast Visitor Pass to the conductor.
 - The conductor will validate your Belfast Visitor Pass for you. A ticket receipt will NOT be produced.
 - When the card reads successfully the machine will beep once. A green light will appear on the screen at the top.
 - If a red light appears and an x symbol displays on the screen at the top, remove your Belfast Visitor Pass and speak to a member of staff.

The validator machine does not issue a ticket or receipt. It simply checks that your Belfast Visitor Pass is valid to make a journey. No cash is accepted or stored in a validator machine. You are required to present your Belfast Visitor Pass to any authorised member of Translink staff when requested. Please note that if your Belfast Visitor Pass does not read on a Translink ticket machine you must pay full fare for the journey and phone Translink's SmartPass Office on 028 9075 9129 to obtain a replacement card.

With the Belfast Visitor Pass, enjoy unlimited travel for the period of consecutive day(s) of travel purchased i.e. 1, 2 or 3 days within the Belfast Visitor Pass Zone.
