EXPLORING BELFAST

CITY AREAS

Exploring a city can be tricky if you don’t know your way around, or even what to look out for. Get a flavour of Belfast with this taster to help navigate your way around the city’s areas and quarters.

CITY CENTRE
Home to the iconic Belfast City Hall, St George’s Market and the main shopping district. You’ll be spoilt for choice with the abundance of cool cafés, great pubs, trendy bars and an amazing restaurant scene. Start off in the Visit Belfast Welcome Centre (opposite City Hall) to pick up information, book tours and find out everything to make the most of your visit.

CATHEDRAL QUARTER
Packed full of fascinating architecture, buzzing beer gardens, trendy warehouse restaurants, cobbled streets and colourful street art, this area of town contrasts the old with the new, with St. Anne’s Square, home to the Metropolitan Arts Centre (MAC) and a piazza of welcoming eateries, alongside some of the oldest streets in Belfast.

LINEN QUARTER
Belfast was once nicknamed “Linenopolis” as it was the world leader in the production of linen in the 19th Century. Just south of City Hall, you can enjoy the architecture of the old linen mills which house a mix of offices, chic bars and renowned restaurants. This is a great part of town to enjoy dinner and drinks.

TITANIC QUARTER
Steeped in memories of a bygone era, the Titanic Quarter is now a fun and energetic urban waterfront development. Visit or take a tour of the many historic and state-of-the-art Titanic visitor attractions, or simply stroll around the Maritime Mile to learn more about the city’s shipbuilding heritage.

QUEEN’S QUARTER
The area around Queen’s University is a treasure trove of eclectic shops, boutiques, cafés, bars and art galleries. Visit the collections of the Ulster Museum, stroll around Botanic Gardens. The neighbouring Lisburn Road offers designer shopping, cafés, artisan delis, salons and wine bars.

GAELTACHT QUARTER
The centre for Irish language, music and culture is in the west of the city. An Cultúrlann showcases cultural Irish Gaelic traditions and contains a restaurant, gift shop, theatre and gallery. Explore the stunning Clonard Monastery or enjoy the 3 mile Divis Summit Trail, a specifically designed loop walk on Divis Mountain with spectacular views over Belfast.

EAST SIDE
EastSide was once the beating heart of the city’s industrial past with thousands of people employed in linen mills, rope factories, engineering works and shipyards. EastSide is now thriving once again but this time as a hub of culture and creativity. Make the EastSide Visitor Centre your first stop, with information on key attractions in east Belfast.

THE SHANKILL
Straddling North and West Belfast, the Shankill is home to a wide collection of painted murals depicting the social and political history of the area. Places of interest include the Peace Wall, the Old Shankill Graveyard, dating back to the 14th century, the Shankill Memorial Park and the ancient Bulaun Stone. The Spectrum Centre, a major landmark in the area, hosts a range of events and exhibitions.

Cutters Wharf
What better place to enjoy the sun than a lazy day down by the river? This scenic spot sits on the banks of the River Lagan and always has a buzzing atmosphere. It’s the perfect space for relaxing.
and enjoying delicious food, cocktails and barbecues throughout the summer months. cutterswharf.co.uk

The Perch Rooftop Bar
Travel up 5 floors in an old service elevator to discover The Perch, with its large centre bar surrounded by original window features, brick clad walls and adorned with birdcages and artwork. Sip on cocktails and sangria in the height of summer with blankets on hand if the evening turns cool. theperchbelfast.com

The National
The National has created an epic new heated beer garden to chill out in! With full coverage over a huge heated space with two outdoor bars, why would you go anywhere else for your post lockdown nights out! It’s time to get the cocktails flowing and good times rolling! Open 7 days a week, 12pm-late. thenationalbelfast.com

Kelly’s Cellars
Built in 1720, Kelly’s Cellars is one of Belfast’s oldest traditional Irish pubs. Though not strictly a beer garden, the area in front of Kelly’s Cellars transforms in summer with picnic benches, beer barrels and bar stools to perch on where you can enjoy live traditional music in the “garden sessions”. facebook.com/kellys.cellars

The Jailhouse
The Jailhouse offers a fantastic range of traditional food, local drinks and entertainment alongside the heritage of Joys Entry. Among the historical buildings in the entry, there’s a cosy outdoor seating area that is often decked out for different seasons. No booking required. thejailhousebelfast.com

The Sunflower
This historic pub has changed over the years to a modern, colourful, hip venue with amazing wood-fired pizzas served out in the south facing Beer Garden. None of the beers are mainstream brands, so enjoy sampling some great local craft beers, ales and ciders. sunflowerbelfast.com

Granny Annies
The award-winning beer garden at Granny Annies can accommodate up to 80 guests and is open throughout the year. This popular bar and kitchen offers tasty pub food, sports on big screens and an array of cocktails, beers and wine. Bookings are available for food, not required for drinks. grannyannies.co.uk/belfast

Street Art
Belfast has incredible street art and you can discover a lot of it on a gentle stroll from the city centre to the Cathedral Quarter. From classic pieces that have been part of the city for years to new works in the historic entries, take a walk and see what you discover! See P32 for more details.

The Golden Mile Walking Trail
Linen Quarter BID has launched a new walking trail running from Belfast City Hall to the Ulster Museum via the Golden Mile. The trail covers the Linen Quarter and Queen’s Quarter, combining stunning Victorian architecture with contemporary culture. Starting at the City Hall’s Titanic Memorial, highlights... include the new Blackstaff Square Social Hub (opening August 2021), The Crown Liquor Saloon, Ulster Hall and the Eco sculpture outside the McClay Library. See P34/35 for more details.

Maritime Mile
The Maritime Mile captures the heritage of Belfast’s waterfront, running from Sailortown past the Big Fish, SS Nomadic, Titanic Belfast, Titanic Slipways, Great Light and much more. It represents one navigational mile of water and 10 kilometres of accessible waterfront, where you can walk, cycle, run and play in the footsteps of giants. See P20/21 for more details.

Van Morrison Trail
Go on a journey through the east Belfast of Van Morrison’s youth. This trail offers a glimpse of some of the places the Belfast-born singer knew as a child growing up. Look out for QR codes at some locations to download a short song extract related to that place. Download the trail map from: visitbelfast.com/gameofthrones

CS Lewis Square Interactive Trail
Become an explorer on the CS Lewis Square Interactive Trail, where your mission is to find answers to mysterious clues hidden in familiar landmarks. ENJOY OUR GREEN SPACES

JUST A SHORT DISTANCE AWAY FROM THE HUSTLE AND BUSTLE OF THE CITY CENTRE, YOU CAN ENJOY A RANGE OF PARKS, GARDENS, COUNTRY ESTATES AND EXHILARATING COASTLINES. TIME SLOWS DOWN AS YOU REVEL IN THE SOUND OF BIRDSONG, THE SMELL OF FRESHLY CUT GRASS OR THE WAVES WASHING UP ON THE SHORE.

These well-tended green spaces are our pride and joy and often showcase fragrant rose gardens, exotic plants and a huge array of rare trees and shrubs. From botanical gardens to riverside towpaths or simple municipal spaces, the opportunity to recharge are plentiful and picturesque.

For a city of its size, Belfast punches well above its weight in terms of the variety and accessibility of green space. You can choose from over 70 parks and open spaces within the city boundary, including the historic Botanic Gardens in Queen’s Quarter, the stunning Stormont Estate in EastSide and Sir Thomas and Lady Dixon Park in the south of the city, which is renowned for its International Rose Garden.
The city is bordered on three sides by hills and mountains where you can enjoy hiking trails and magnificent views of the Irish Sea to the east. In the north of the city, Cave Hill Country Park offers a more adventurous hike which rewards visitors with some of the best views over Belfast and beyond. Divis and Black Mountain offers a flatter Ridge Trail where on a clear day you can see the Mourne Mountains, Strangford Lough, the Isle of Man and the coast of Scotland. For runners and cyclists, the Lagan Towpath runs for nearly the entire length of the River Lagan, from the centre of Belfast to the neighbouring city of Lisburn or the Connswater Community Greenway offers a 9km linear park through East Belfast. To enjoy one of the finest shoreline walks in Ireland, hop on a train to Holywood to the start of the 25km North Down Coastal Path, where you can find a variety of geological features, wild flowers, birds and seals.

Enjoy Our Award Winning Parks and Open Spaces

78 of Northern Ireland’s best-managed parks and open spaces have been recognised with the international standard of excellence, the Green Flag Award.

MARITIME MILE

SINCLAIR SEAMEN’S CHURCH
Built by Charles Lanyon in 1857–58 to meet the spiritual needs of visiting sailors, this part church, part maritime museum has a pulpit shaped like a ship’s prow, a brass ship’s wheel and binnacle (used as a baptismal font) salvaged from a WWI wreck and the ship’s bell from HMS Hood.

BELFAST HARBOUR COMMISSIONERS
This stunning building dates back to 1847, and you can visit an exhibition in the Heritage Room which celebrates 400 years of Belfast’s maritime history, detailing Belfast’s emergence as a major port and the city’s subsequent growth and development as an industrial hub.

CLARENDON DOCK & CITY QUAYS
The dry docks where Belfast’s shipbuilding industry was born date back to 1800-1826. Both docks were used to work on ships' hulls and the workshop was designed for working on the rigging of sailing ships. The area has now been transformed into the City Quays development, home to a mix of commercial offices, shops, cafes, restaurants as well as the AC Hotel by Marriott Belfast.

THE BIG FISH
The beautiful blue scales on the Salmon of Knowledge (affectionately known as The Big Fish) are made up of ceramic tiles depicting scenes from the city’s history. Legend has it that if you kiss the fish you’ll gain all of its wisdom!

LAGAN WEIR
A wide, modern foot and cycle bridge connecting the city centre with Titanic Quarter. Beautifully illuminated in the evening, take a seat and enjoy the views of the city from the River Lagan.

GLASS OF THRONES
You’ll find 3 of the 6 Game of Thrones stained glass windows in Titanic Quarter, located at the Odyssey Point, SS Nomadic and on the Titanic Slipways. Created for the final season of the show, each one represents a different house or legacy.

THE BELFAST BUOYS
The three buoys are estimated to be around 80 years old, and would have been used by mariners to find a safe channel to and from port. Recently restored to their original colours, they have been installed as a permanent display at Abercorn Basin.

SS NOMADIC
The last remaining White Star Line vessel, SS Nomadic, has been restored to her original glory and is back home in the historic Hamilton Dock, near Titanic Belfast. Come on board and experience over 100 years of authentic maritime and social history.

TITANIC BELFAST
One of the world’s leading visitor attractions is housed in an iconic six-floor building. With nine interpretive and interactive galleries that explore the sights, sounds, smells and stories of Titanic, as well as the city and people which made her, Titanic Belfast is an unmissable experience.

TITANIC & OLYMPIC SLIPWAYS
Behind Titanic Belfast you’ll find the historic slipways.
where these famous ships were built and launched over a hundred years ago. Containing many original features, a Memorial Garden illustrates the proportion of Titanic’s victims and survivors from each of the passenger classes and crew. The outline of the sister ships illuminate at night and are the perfect space to reflect.

TITANIC HOTEL BELFAST
The original red brick building is a truly authentic part of Titanic’s story. Harland and Wolff had two main drawing offices within the building, where naval architects, marine engineers and draftsmen were responsible for the design of the ships. This historic building has been transformed into the Titanic Hotel, preserving its place in Belfast’s maritime heritage.

THE GREAT LIGHT
This former lighthouse optic is a unique heritage object with significance to Belfast’s economic industrial maritime past. Originally serving both Mew and Tory Island lighthouses, the optic is the largest of its kind ever constructed and dates back to 1887. It is lit all year round and has amazing views over Belfast Harbour and Lough.

TITANIC DOCK & PUMP-HOUSE
Discover the story behind Belfast’s maritime magic by taking a tour at the site of the Thompson Dry-Dock and Pump-House. See the ship’s physical footprint in history, descend 44 feet to the bottom of the dock where Titanic last sat on dry ground and learn about Belfast’s shipbuilding legacy in the visitor centre.

HICKSON’S POINT
Make a stop to ‘rest your wee legs’ while out enjoying the Maritime Mile. Offering an authentic 1900’s public house setting, serving up perfect pints and classic Clangers with traditional music, heritage décor and a beer garden! Located on the plaza outside Titanic Belfast, Hickson’s Point is open daily and dog-friendly!
Sure, you can visit Belfast and lounge in luxurious accommodation and pamper yourself in a spa. But wouldn’t it be better to get out and about for some high-octane laughs? If you’re looking for something a bit different… an adventure, a thrilling twist on the average city break; we have it by the bucket-load!

Colin Glen

Opening in July 2021, Colin Glen’s new world-class attractions bring unmissable action to Belfast!

HISTORY & HERITAGE

Over four hundred years have passed since the first settlers made Belfast their home: historic buildings, museums and visitor centres will let you discover the city’s rich history and heritage.

Belfast City Hall
Designed by Alfred Brumwell Thomas in the Baroque Revival style and constructed in Portland stone, Belfast City Hall first opened its doors in August 1906. The grounds contain a wealth of memorials to the history, people and events associated with the city including the Cenotaph, built in memory of all those who died in the First World War and the Titanic Memorial Gardens which name all 1,512 victims of the disaster.

Crumlin Road Gaol
Built between 1843 and 1845, the gaol was designed by the renowned architect Sir Charles Lanyon. The black basalt rock prison was modelled on London’s Pentonville Prison. Visitors can take a self-guided tour of this nineteenth century Grade 'A' listed building and experience life behind bars.

Clifton House
Established as Belfast’s Poor House in 1774, where thousands of people sought sanctuary within its walls right up until 1882. The Belfast Charitable Society and its home in Clifton House, has survived rebellions and revolutions, while looking after the welfare of the people of the city.

Linenhall Library
Located opposite Belfast City Hall is the city’s oldest library (1788) which houses one of the most renowned collections of Irish material in the world. Browse the collections, visit the gift shop or relax in the coffee shop.
St Anne’s Cathedral
Romanesque in style with exquisite mosaics, carvings and stained glass, you can explore this stunning building to learn about its history and the people who helped shape this sacred place.

Belfast Castle
One of the city’s most famous landmarks, the castle was built in the 1860s and is located at the base of Cave Hill in north Belfast. The estate contains landscaped gardens and mature mixed woodland offering superb views of the city from a variety of vantage points.

Queen’s University
The UK’s ninth oldest university contains a distinguished heritage and history. Its main building was also designed by Sir Charles Lanyon, and opened in 1849. Take a stroll around the open campus or enjoy a self-guided campus tour.

James Connolly Visitor Centre
Áras Uí Chonghaile tells the story of Connolly, exploring his role as a pioneer of the early trade union movement, and his travels throughout Britain and America. The charming and historic Cathedral Quarter has the highest concentration of street art in Belfast. Some of the most iconic pieces include ‘Blurry Eyed’ on Talbot Street, ‘Belfast Romances’ on Victoria Street, ‘The Chef’ on High Street, ‘Forzan’ on Gresham Street, ‘Pandora’s Jar’ on Donegall Street and ‘The Duel of Belfast, Dance By Candlelight’ on Hill Street.

Belfast’s answer to Portugal’s Umbrella Sky Project can be found just off Commercial Court, facing the Duke of York Pub, but this hidden entry is much more than a few umbrellas in the sky. Stand beneath these vibrant yellow brollies and look around and you will see caricatures of some of Belfast’s most famous faces.

You can delve into this colourful world with the Google Map Street Art Guide, which is a great way of enjoying these wonderful art pieces at your own pace, or take the Belfast Street Art Walking Tour to gain an entertaining insider’s view to the art, the artists, the process, and the political and cultural history of the area.
Belfast is a buzzing and diverse city offering a range of colourful events and vibrant nightlife. Home to the largest lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender festival in Ireland, the city has a thriving LGBT+ community and gay scene.

NIGHTLIFE

Belfast’s best gay bars and clubs* are located in the city’s Smithfield and Union Quarter area, north of the city centre on the edge of the Cathedral Quarter.

Union Street Bar
8–14 Union Street
Situated in a 19th century shoe factory, Union Street Bar is one of the city’s most stylish bars with a cool yet comfy vibe. 10 GREAT INSTAGRAMMABLE LOCATIONS
Here are some of the most beautiful sights in Ards and North Down, they need no filter, and you are guaranteed to be snap happy.

1. Scrabo Tower, Newtownards
As one of Northern Ireland’s most well-known landmarks, the majestic Scrabo Tower can be seen from afar and is a local icon. The 19th century lookout tower is 135 feet (41m) tall and stands on Scrabo Hill, where you can enjoy vast views across Strangford Lough.

2. Ballycopeland Windmill, Millisle
Ballycopeland Windmill is the only remaining windmill in Northern Ireland with the original Reef mechanism still existing. It was built in the late 18th or early 19th century and was worked until the First World War when it fell into disrepair. The windmill is currently undergoing regeneration work, with investment to construct a visitor centre with coffee shop and refurbishment of the existing miller’s cottage and kilnman's house.

3. Eisenhower Pier and Bangor Marina
North of Bangor Marina by Bangor Lifeboat Station, the pier has a number of mosaics representing the history of the town and one which depicts the borough’s crucial role in the Second World War. From here, you can dander round... to the seafront promenade which hugs the marina and forms part of the North Down Coastal Path. Stroll past Pickie Funpark, enjoy the lovely seaside vibes and capture beautiful coastal shots.

4 Grey Abbey Ruins
A great photo opportunity, the Cistercian abbey was founded in 1193 by Affreca, wife of John de Courcy, the Anglo-Norman invader of East Ulster. Grey Abbey is located in a picturesque village with beautiful antique and coffee shops, you’re sure to be won over by its charm.

5 North Down Coastal Path
The photo opportunities are endless along one of the finest shoreline walks in Ireland. Take in the beautiful surroundings and contrasting shoreline, from rocky outlets to salt marshes and mudflats to sandy beaches.

6 Mount Stewart, Ards Peninsula
Wow, you will be spoilt for choice at magical Mount Stewart - find out why Mount Stewart has been voted as one of the Top Ten Gardens in the world. Capture the beautifully landscaped and informal grounds that surround the picturesque lake walk, recently extended walking trails, and impressive neoclassical family home. (Pre-booking is essential)

7 Nendrum Monastic Site, Comber
Thought to be the best example of a pre-Norman monastic site in Northern Ireland, you’ll want to add this scenic location to your camera roll. The monastic site consists of three round dry stone walled enclosures, one within the other, situated on the shores of Strangford Lough. Another great opportunity to capture fantastic images.
8 Sketrick Castle, Killinchy
Sketrick Castle, reached by a causeway on the west coast of Strangford Lough, take your pics at the ruins of the castle located on Sketrick Island. This large tower house was built in the mid-15th century and has a rich history to be discovered.

9 Ulster Folk Museum, Cultra
Promising fantastic shots as you stroll around the grounds of the Ulster Folk Museum. Encounter costumed locals demonstrating traditional crafts in cottages, farm dwellings, schools, and shops as you enjoy a visit to this living history museum. Set in the rolling hills of Cultra and featuring a bustling town, filled with authentic period buildings, rich in traditions from over 100 years ago. (Pre-booking is essential)

10 Donaghadee Harbour and Lighthouse
This well-photographed famous Northern Ireland landmark welcomes you to take your creative capture! Donaghadee’s iconic lighthouse stands guard on the harbour keeping ships right in times of trouble with its beam and foghorn. The Donaghadee Lighthouse has the distinction of being the first Irish lighthouse to be converted to electricity. On a clear day, get that perfect shot of an uninterrupted view across to Scotland.

These are only a selection of the inspiring sights and places to visit in Ards and North Down. To explore more check out visitardsandnorthdown.com

Lisburn & Castlereagh

There is no better place to enjoy summer than in Lisburn & Castlereagh. Experience the great outdoors by spending quality time in one of the many parks across the area, which are perfect for exercising, cycling or dog walking. Quench your thirst or enjoy a bite to eat in one of the numerous beer gardens or outdoor eating areas, whilst watching the world go by. So why not get out and connect with nature and experience what’s on offer in Lisburn & Castlereagh this summer.

WALK LISBURN
You’re never too old to learn and following the Sir Richard Wallace walking trail is the perfect way to explore Lisburn and spruce up on your knowledge. So put on your walking shoes and learn all about Lisburn’s famous landlord on this self-guided walking trail around the City centre. The trail makes it way from Wallace Park to Wallace Avenue and Wallace High School, then on to Castle House, Castle Gardens and Lisburn Cathedral. During the walking trail you can enjoy the peaceful retreat of Castle Gardens, once the site of Lisburn Castle.

Download the guide: visitlisburncastlereagh.com

If you prefer a more challenging walk or cycle then Lagan Valley Regional Park is the perfect choice. Stretching eleven miles between Lisburn & Belfast, you can enjoy the variety of valley landscapes from wet meadows, to mixed beech woodland and parkland. This is the perfect time of the year to connect with nature and enjoy everything that Lagan Valley Regional Park has to offer.

Have your camera at the ready! Only a short 20 Minute walk along the Lagan Tow Path and you will have a superb view of the now abandoned Hilden Mill, home of the Barbour Thread Factory. A recommended spot for photographs of this highly significant building in the history of Lisburn’s Linen Industry.

DISCOVER HILLSBOROUGH
Hillsborough Forest Park is set in the picturesque Georgian village of Hillsborough. The park sits a few minutes’ drive from Hillsborough Castle and is home to Hillsborough Fort. Hillsborough Forest Park is a popular choice for photographers, bird watchers, fishing enthusiasts and dog walkers alike. The forest covers an area of almost 200 acres providing a variety of walks to suit people of all abilities. Visitors can now enjoy upgraded pathways throughout, stunning lakeside viewpoints with seating, additional picnic benches, extra car-parking facilities, and a state-of-the-art woodland-themed outdoor children’s play area. The entire lake area is a forest wildlife sanctuary and is home to a wide variety of birds and animals. Look out for the many species of resident and over-wintering waterfowl, especially swans and several varieties of duck.
VISIT MOIRA
A must see place to visit in Moira is Moira Demesne. With over 40 acres of parkland, Moira Demesne provides a quiet retreat where you can enjoy the walkways, picnic sites and superb children’s play park. This park was once one of the foremost botanical gardens back in 17th Century Europe. There are areas dedicated to biodiversity and the Demesne benefits from a range of wildlife species.

It’s time to brush the cobwebs from your fishing rods and relax in the beautiful surroundings at Moira Lakes. Book your socially distanced space for all the family at moiralakes.com and enjoy the lakes, picnic areas and nature trail. Try your luck at fishing from the Main Lake or Bait Pond whilst enjoying great coffee, German hot-dogs and a range of take-away food.

HISTORIC MOAT PARK DUNDONALD
Moat Park is an idyllic green oasis, situated in the heart of Dundonald. Moat Park offers walks around the historic Motte as well as providing links so you can explore the many facilities on offer in the village. It’s hard not to be impressed when you walk around one of the largest Motte’s in Northern Ireland. Close by is the Parish Church of St. Elizabeth which dates back to 1306. The park also has a Wildlife Garden where you can see a variety of plants and wildlife.

OUTDOOR DINING TO ENJOY
With the weather improving and the days getting longer there’s nothing more inviting than enjoying delicious food and having a chat in a Beer Garden. You’ll be spoilt for choice in Lisburn & Castlereagh but here are just a few to add to your bucket list.

The Speckled Hen Derriaghy
This is County Antrim’s oldest pub and has been serving weary travellers and locals alike since 1660. Serving locally-sourced seasonal produce, the meals are freshly prepared by a team of experienced chefs. There is also an on-site nano-brewery, making their very own expertly crafted beers by master brewer, plus their own blends of gins, whiskey and vodka. speckledhenlisburn.com

Isles, said to have been formed by the mythical giant Finn McCool. Visit the Lough Neagh Discovery Centre at Oxford Island, where you'll find tourist information, bird watching facilities, woodland, ponds, wildflower meadows and picnic and play areas.

Rathlin Island
Rathlin Island is Northern Ireland’s only inhabited island and is also home to one of the largest seabird colonies. Take the Rathlin Ferry Service to experience amazing wildlife, explore the lighthouse and visit The Rathlin West Light Seabird Centre. In summer, the seabird colony is a real assault on the senses with tens of thousands of birds, including puffins, razorbills, guillemots and kittiwakes, jostling for space on the cliff face.

Causeway Coastal Route
County Antrim’s Causeway Coastal Route runs north from Larne, and is the gateway to the Nine Glens of Antrim with Glenariff Forest Park at its heart. On the north coast you’ll find the Giants Causeway, one of only two World Heritage Sites in Northern Ireland. Visitors can walk along the basalt columns which are at the edge of the sea, just over 1km from the entrance to the site. Booking essential.

Mourne Mountains
Experience the magic of the Mourne Mountains, where dizzying peaks roll into deep valleys and tranquil forests. Venture to the top of Northern Ireland’s highest peak, Slieve Donard, which overlooks the coastal town of Newcastle and the Irish Sea. You’ll walk through breathtaking countryside and forest, and learn about the fauna, wildlife and flora along the way.

St Patrick’s Trail
Discover the legacy of St Patrick on this 92 mile driving route that links sites connected to the Irish Patron Saint. The Saint Patrick Centre situated below Patrick’s burial site in Downpatrick is an interactive exhibition about his life. Visit Down County Museum, located within the walls of the former county gaol, and discover the past through the story of St Patrick and the human and natural history of the region.

Lough Neagh
Lough Neagh is the largest fresh water lake in the British Isles, said to have been formed by the mythical giant Finn McCool. Visit the Lough Neagh Discovery Centre at Oxford Island, where you’ll find tourist information, bird watching facilities, woodland, ponds, wildflower meadows and picnic and play areas.

Jump in your car and discover hidden gems, geological wonders of the world, secluded bays and real-life fantasy locations, just a short drive from Belfast.
Most gardens, parks, cafés, coast and countryside sites and some houses are now open for you to explore. When planning your visit, we recommend you check current opening times and book in advance.

Mount Stewart
Embark on a road trip to explore the beautiful Strangford Lough and Ards Peninsula. Stop off at Mount Stewart, a stunning estate which has one of the most inspiring and unusual gardens in the National Trust’s ownership and ranked as one of the top ten gardens in the world. You can take the ferry from Portaferry to Strangford, which takes both foot and car passengers with sailings daily.

Hillsborough Castle Gardens
From grand family home to charming royal residence, Hillsborough Castle has welcomed the world and witnessed pivotal chapters in politics. A tour includes guided access to all the State Rooms that make up this elegant Georgian home. Also explore 100 acres of beautiful gardens to complete a relaxing day out for the whole family and enjoy brunch, lunch or coffee and treats at the Yellow Door Café.

Castle Ward
From one magnificent house to another, continue your journey to Castle Ward which boasts spectacular views of Strangford Lough. Learn about the heritage of the family who lived there and walk the woodland pathways. Castle Ward is also the location for Winterfell Castle in the HBO hit television show Game of Thrones.

Antrim Castle Gardens
A historical gem, these 400 year old gardens have been preserved for generations to come. Walk into the past as you stroll around this magnificent setting, visiting beautiful features such as the Large Parterre, Her Ladyship’s Pleasure Garden and Yew Tree Pond before sampling the many culinary delights in the Garden Coffee Shop.

Rowallane Garden
Come for a walk, explore the garden and take in all the vibrant colours, fresh scents and sounds of a wide range of wildlife. Discover the Walled Garden, the Pleasure Grounds and enjoy a tranquil walk around the famous Rock Garden Wood. This summer there are new spaces for you to explore and the kids will love the new Explore & Play area.
